

What is a Learning Community?

A Learning Community is two courses paired together

English
(Eng 088, Eng 098, Eng 099, or Eng 101)
&
Math (Mat 011, or Mat 015)

English (Eng 089)
&
Psychology (Psy 101)

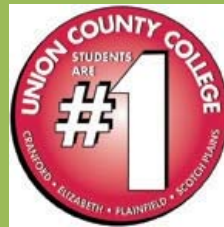

Why pair the classes together?

Both classes have the same students

Instructors work together to have coordinated coursework in both classes

Individual and group support from a designated tutor and academic counselor

How will this benefit you?

Convenient scheduling

Comfortable way to meet people
Social events during the semester

Friendly and approachable faculty, counselors, tutors, and librarians

- More communication with professors
- Designated academic counselor helps plan your academic career
- Designated tutor for your Learning Community for academic support
- Librarians help with research for class projects
- Peer mentors give "insider's look" to help navigate Union County College.